Cherry on top of your Croatia experience is definitely the historical Varazdin. The city was built over the centuries and different stylistic influences, varying fashions of certain historical periods and wishes of the investors created an interesting and somewhat unusual harmony of flora and fauna, mythical animals and unusual characters built into the facades of the houses and palaces in the historic old town. In the afternoon transfer to Slovenia, where you will be pampered in one of the best wellness resorts – TERME 3000. Step into the rich blackness of the Moravci springs for an instant feeling of warmth that penetrates to the deepest tissues. With its heat and rich chemical composition, the black thermal mineral water eases a number of health problems, while its beneficial effects can also be experienced in the wellness treatments. The resort is known for the black thermal mineral water, which was declared a natural healing remedy back in 1964, originates from springs that are 967 to 1,467 metres underground in the Mura-Zala basin.

DAY 8: TREASURES OF POMURJE B, T, L

Welcome to the lowlands of Mura river, the Pomurje region. Eventhough this may not be the most popular part of Slovenia; it still has a lot to offer. Crossing over the Mura region, the road will take you down south, closer to River Drava, arriving in little town called Jeruzalem. This region is called Podravje and is home to one of the best wineries in Slovenia. Here you will learn all about their wine process and product with a tour of the estate and degustation of wine and local products in traditional cottage "zidanica". It will be hard, but we recommend to leave a little space in your stomachs as you continue to a local pumpkin oil production for some more taste of Pomurje. Later on, you will head to Lendava for a walking tour of town and lunch, where you will try traditional bograc and Prekmurska gibanica. Return to hotel in the afternoon and free time to relax.

PALMA INCOMING TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. GENERAL CONDITIONS

The general conditions for offering services are part of the contract in other words the invoice, between PALMA d.o.o., Tour Operator & DMC, Lilekova 5, 3000 Celje, ID 5422086 as a Tour Operator and the traveler who accepts the arrangement offered. Everything that is listed in the general conditions represents a legal commitment for the travelers, as well as for PALMA d.o.o.. When making a booking, traveler confirms that he has the authority to accept these conditions on his behalf and on behalf of all members of the group and further, if one is making a booking for more than one person, that he is responsible for all payments due from each and every member of the group for whom he is making a booking.

2. OFFERS

Tour Operator ensures services according to the information published and valid at the time of the confirmation of reservation, and according to the description and travel period in accordance with confirmed reservations except in circumstances beyond our control such as illness of the service provider or his/her immediate family, outstanding circumstances which cannot be foreseen nor eliminated (natural disasters such as earthquakes, floods, sanitary disruptions, fires, droughts, wars, strike, terrorist actions and limitations issued by the government mobilization, country exit ban).

3. PRICES

Prices are informative. Prices and taxes are currently in force and subject to availability. Rates are per person, based on two persons sharing a room, including breakfast unless otherwise mentioned. All rates are subject to change without prior notice due to increases imposed by hotel, airlines, currency fluctuation and fuel surcharges.

4. RESERVATION

All reservations must be made by electronic form or by email or Palma's website. By confirming a reservation, the traveler confirms that he/she is aware of the General Terms and conditions of the travel services and fully comprehends and accepts these terms which are binding for both the Traveler and the tour operator. To guarantee the reservation a 30% deposit is required, unless agreed otherwise. For bookings made within 14 days of arrival, full payment is required. It is the traveler's responsibility to ensure that any information which they give to tour operator is accurate and that information which is given to them by a tour operator is passed on.

Inquires and accommodation reservations can be made via email, in writing or in person at any of the tour operator's branch offices as well as at the offices of our partner travel agencies.

The Tour Operator provides the traveler with the appropriate materials in electronic form, presenting all relevant information regarding the trip, and provides or points out the general terms and conditions of the trip which are an integral part of this Agreement. The traveler is obligated to provide any information required for the reservation process. A deposit is required depending on the chosen payment method. The balance payment is due at least 14 days before arrival unless otherwise specified upon booking confirmation.

The service provider reserves the right to withhold service to the Traveler if the Traveler brings a pet to the accommodation without previously notifying the Agency or the service provider. In this case, the Tour Operator is not obligated to accept complaints made by the traveler on the quality of the booked accommodation or services.

5. BOOKING CONFIRMATION

Upon receiving a booking, we will send you written confirmation. With written confirmation we guarantee all services as per our program.

6. PAYMENT

A 30% deposit is required at booking of a product from the Escorted tour catalogue. For all the other products the deposit of 30 % is required, unless agreed otherwise. The rest of the payment- must be received at least 30 days before arrival. The tour operator has the right to cancel a reservation in case the payment has not been received within the agreed terms. Payment can be made by a bank transfer or by credit card.

The players and recipient bank transfer fees are covered entirely by the client.

7. ACCOMODATION

The offered accommodation units are described in accordance with the official categorization of the proper authority, as well as the actual state of the unit at the time of its publication. The standards of the accommodation, food, services and the like vary depending on the destination/country and are not subject to comparison. The information provided to the traveler at the point of sale does not obligate the Tour Operator any more than the information stated on the web pages of www.palma-travel.eu or in the catalogue or other printed materials of the Tour Operator.

Please note that the standard policy is that rooms are usually available for check in after 2 PM. Early check in needs to be advised in advance and is subject to availability.

8. OBLIGATIONS OF THE TOUR OPERATOR

The Agency's obligation is providing services as well as selecting the service provider while taking into consideration the rights and interests of travelers in accordance with the traditions of the tourism industry. The Agency will fulfil all the above mentioned obligations as described, except in circumstances beyond its control (Article 2) in which the Agency will proceed as stated in Article 12.

9. OBLIGATIONS OF THE TRAVELLER

The traveler is obligated to:

- Have valid travel documentation
- Respect and abide by all customs and foreign exchange regulations of the destination country
- Respect and abide by all customs and foreign exchange regulations as well as the laws and other regulations of the Republic of Slovenia as well as other countries through which he/she passes through or resides in. Inquire whether or not he/she requires a visa for the destination country as well as neighboring countries. In the event the traveler is unable to continue the trip as a result of being in direct violation of these regulations, the traveler is responsible for all related expenses.
- Abide by the house rules of the accommodation unit as well as cooperate with the service provider in a well-intentioned manner.
- Present the service provider in the document proving paid service (voucher received via e-mail or fax).
- Announce the intention of bringing a pet into the accommodation unit, even if the accommodation unit is described as a pet friendly accommodation, as well as announce the type and size of the pet.

10. TRAVEL DOCUMENTS

Each traveler is responsible for carrying a valid passport and for possessing the required visa. The agency is not liable for any consequences that the absence of travel documents, etc. may have if travelers fail to inform the tour operator of such issues.

11. LUGGAGE

The tour operator is not responsible for loss, theft or damage to the luggage during the trip, including during luggage handling during hotel-airport or vice versa transfers.

12. TRAVEL INSURANCE

We strongly advise travelers to take out travel insurance covering the costs of accidents or death, treatment of illnesses, transport home and loss or damage of luggage and similar.

13. RESERVATION CHANGES

Every change in the reservation has to be previously confirmed and agreed from the agency.

14. CANCELLATIONS

In the event the traveler wishes to change or cancel a confirmed reservation he/she must do so in writing (via e-mail or fax). Changes or cancellations by telephone are not permitted and will not be accepted. In the event that the traveler should request to make a change or cancel a confirmed reservation, the date on which the written cancellation is received, during regular Tour Operator's working hours, will represent the basis for the cost calculation. If the written cancellation is received outside regular Tour Operator's working hours, the cancellation date which will represent the ground for calculating cancellation costs will be the following working day of the tour operator.

The cancellation charges will be calculated as follows (unless agreed otherwise):

More than 45 days before arrival date, deposit 10% of the total amount

44 - 30 days before arrival date, 30% of the total amount

29 - 15 days before arrival date, 70% of the total amount

14 - 0 days before arrival date, 100% of the total amount.

In the case of no-show, all reserved services will be charged.

COVID - 19 special regulations

The client/tour operator may cancel the reservation any time ad without any penalties in case restrictions and government measurements due to the COVID 19 /prohibited travelling in/out of the country, lock down, measurements which could effected normal us of service.

15. COMPLAINTS

Each traveler - reservation holder has a right to file a complaint if the paid services was not provided. If the services provided are not satisfactory, the passenger is required to immediately notify the Tour Operator about the inadequate service and file a complaint on the day of his/her arrival at the location of the service provider and to inform the Tour Operator office by email at incoming@palma.si or by phone at +386 1 24 43 670 (customer service working hours). The traveler is obligated to cooperate with the Tour Operator's representative as well as with the service provider in a well-intentioned manner so that the cause of the complaint can be resolved. If upon arrival the traveler is not satisfied with the state of the accommodation and leaves the accommodation on his own initiative and finds another accommodation without giving the Tour Operator a chance to resolve the issue, correct the cause of the discontent, or find other accommodation for the traveler, the traveler does not have a right to request a refund or make a claim for compensation, regardless of the fact that his/her reasons were justified or not.

The traveller should accept the proposed solution which corresponds with the service rendered on the spot, the Tour Operators will not take additional complaints into consideration or respond to them.

If the problem is not resolved on the spot following an intervention, the traveler is obligated to submit a written complaint along with supporting documents as well as any photographs to support the complaint to the agency by e-mail at incoming@palma.si or by post mail no later than 60 days following the return of the traveler from his/her trip. The Agency shall only take into consideration fully documented complaints which are received within the 60-day deadline.

The agency is obligated to make a written solution to the complaint within 8 days of receipt of the written complaint. The agency can postpone the deadline in order to collect the evidence and check the claim quotes with the service provider but not for more than 8 days. The agency will take into consideration only those claims whose cause could not be resolved on the spot.

The Tour Operator cannot be held responsible for climate conditions, cleanliness, and the temperature of the sea, nor for other similar situations and events which can result in the dissatisfaction of travelers and are not a direct result of the accommodation unit (for example, bad weather, improperly maintained beaches, crowds, lost or stolen property and such).

If the traveler decides to book the special LAST MINUTE deal, then he accepts all risks of such travel. These journeys include the uncertainty of the facts upon which the agency cannot influence, and the traveler primarily due to the price accepted such a trip and therefore has no right of complaint to the agency.

16. THE AGENCY'S RIGHT TO CHANGES AND CANCELLATIONS

The Tour Operator reserves the right to make changes of reservations in the event of circumstances which cannot be predicted, avoided or eliminated (see Article 2). A reserved accommodation unit can only be changed with prior notification to the traveler for an accommodation unit of the same category or of a higher category and at the price at which the traveler confirmed the reservation. If the replacement accommodation is only possible in a higher-category unit where the price is 15% higher than the price of the paid reservation, the Tour Operator reserves the right to charge the traveler for the difference in agreement with the traveler. In the event a replacement accommodation unit cannot be arranged, the Travel Operator reserves the right to cancel the reservation and notify the traveler prior to the beginning of the service and guarantees a full refund of the paid amount. If the Tour Operator cancels a reservation, the traveler is not entitled to any compensation from the Tour Operator and the Tour Operator is only obligated to refund the amount paid to the Tour Operator's account. If an adequate replacement unit is not available on the day of the commencement of the service, the Tour Operator will make an effort to provide the traveler with information on possible alternative arrangements.

17. PERSONAL INFORMATION

The traveler provides personal information of his/her own free will. Personal information is required for processing requested services. The same information shall be used for intercommunication. The Tour Operator is under obligation that the personal information about the traveler will not be taken out of the country or given to a third party except for the purpose of carrying out requested services. The personal information will be kept in a database in accordance with the Management's decision on the method used for collecting, processing and securing personal information. With the acceptance of these General Terms, the traveler gives permission for his/her personal information to be used for promotional offers of the Agency.

18. LIABILITY

The liability of Palma d.o.o. is limited. The tour operator will not accept any responsibility in the event of delay or changes in schedules, defaults or over bookings of hotels, sickness, death, weather changes & conditions, strikes, war, political instability, quarantine and other causes beyond our control. We reserve the right to vary itineraries in order to improve the itinerary, to the travelers enjoyment and advantage.

19. COURT JURISDICTION

The Traveler and the Tour Operator will aim to settle possible law suits in the application of this Agreement and, if an agreement cannot be reached the issue will become subject to the decision of the Celje Court jurisdiction, under the authority of the laws of the Republic of Slovenia.

NOTE

Paying a deposit or payment in full signifies that the traveler fully comprehends and accepts the aforementioned terms.
